INFLUENZA

Nearly 150 Jeff High Students Out

With 143 students reported in bed with the flu, Jefferson Union high school closed its doors this morning. Classes will not reconvene during the remainder of the week.

The action was taken upon the advice of the county health department. According to Principal James Ferguson, the step is more in the nature of a preventative measure than anything else. The high school dance, scheduled for Friday evening, has also been called off.

Although twenty per cent of the high school student body was suffering from the infection, attendance at local elementary schools was reported "as usual." According to R. L. Crane, district superintendent of schools, enrollment yesterday was "if anything, a little higher than average."

Local hospitals reported no flu cases in one instance, and between 7 and 8 in another. Health Officer Fred Collins stated that although the "flu epidemic" had not reached as severe proportions in Daly City

The letter from Sacramento read in part as follows:

"On October 17, local boards were required to call at the offices of their respective county clerks . . . From that day I think there is not a local board in California that has not travelled at a headlong pace.

"You were compelled to find your own quarters and in many

Alumni Report Success For Dance

"It was a great success!"

Such was the unanimous version of approximately 150 guests at the Jefferson Alumni association's first dance, Friday evening, at the Crystal Springs golf and country club.

The event was a financial success, as well, according to reports of the committee in charge. The association hopes to hold another social affair in the near future.

Award A. M. Harrison High School Contract

A. M. Harrison company, 6236 Mission street, has been awarded the $4,582.63 plumbing and heating contract for Jefferson Union high school's new industrial building, it was learned today.

Work on the extensive pipe system for the $35,000 "south wing" addition was begun last week. Foundations are now being completed by Jefferson carpentry students, engaging in the actual construction of the building under the Smith-Hughes act.

It is expected that the new shop and classrooms will take all year to finish. The new building will promote further expansion of Jefferson's industrial department.

Council Studies Mission Street Lighting

Contemplating the installation of a new type of lighting along Mission street in order to reduce life and property traffic tolls, the board of councilmen met at the city hall on Monday evening with a P. G. & E. representative.

At a slight increase in cost, modern street lighting could be installed which would do much to reduce the present after-dark hazards, it was stated. The matter will be discussed further at a regular council meeting.

Disaster Preparedness Committee Meets Tonight

Daly City's "disaster preparedness" committee will meet at 8 p. m. this evening at the city hall to select a chairman and to formulate general policy and procedure.

The committee is comprised of four city officials appointed by the city council and one member each from the local American Legion and V. F. W. posts. Their work will consist largely in building a closely-knit organization which will function smoothly in event of a sudden calamity, such as earthquake or fire.

Permits Reach $25,000 Mark In Daly City

Building permits totaling more than $25,000 in new homes and improvements in Daly City during the past month, were reported today by Building Inspector A. J. Bodien.

Although November is usually a slack month for construction, permits for seven new homes were issued here, Bodien said. They are as follows: two on School street, $5,000 each; one on San Diego, $3,750; one on San Diego, $4,000; one on Templeton, $4,000; and 2 on Niantic, $3,000 each.

Discuss Opening Of Garibaldi Street

The opening of Garibaldi street was again the subject for discussion Monday evening, as Daly City's council was asked by property owners to help them in organizing a WPA streets project for the purpose.

The cost of cutting Garibaldi street through will be about $2300, or an approximate outlay of $20 a lot to property owners on that street. It is estimated, however, that the improvement will increase property values about $50 a lot.

Calling All June '36 Jeff Grammar Graduates

Have you ever longed to see that old gang? Remember the time the little freckled-face kid in front of you threw a spit-ball and the teacher made him stand in the corner? Would you like to see him again? And the teacher?

If you would, tonight's your chance. The Jefferson grammar school graduates of June, '36, are holding a reunion at Lucca restaurant in San Francisco, starting at 8 p. m. All classmates of the group are cordially invited to attend.

Main topic of conversation will be "old times," of course. Pictures of trips to Muir Woods, Tamalpais and class parties (remember?) will be shown.

Miss Muriel Mooney, 236 Crocker avenue, chairman of the affair, assures everybody a grand time at the reunion tonight. Miss Marie Traynor is the teacher.

RECREATION

To Dedicate, Name Two Parks

Within the next few weeks the resurfacing of Acton-Brunswick playground will be finished and play equipment will be installed. Vista Grande ball diamond and field will be finished early in the spring.

To properly celebrate the completion of these two outstanding city developments the city council and local WPA recreation committee, Friday evening, met in joint session to outline plans for naming and dedicating these recreational areas. City-wide all-day events are being arranged for early spring dates.

Councilman Edmund Cavagnaro announced "turf on the Vista Grande ball diamond is in excellent condition. August Conci, proprietor of Lake Merced nursery, is doing a great job on the infield and on other landscaping developments at the park. We'll be ready to play ball on the diamond within two or three months."

Bruce Boynton, director of Daly City WPA Recreation department, assured council members that his department would have sufficient personnel to man the new park and playground when they are opened.

THEATER PARTY

Daly City children again this year will be entertained free at a big Christmas party set for December 23, at Daly City theater. Movies, stage entertainment, free candy nuts, apples, and oranges are planed for the children's holiday show. Daly City police and firemen have offered to assist in handling the crowd of youngsters. Tickets for the party will be distributed to local school children and will be made available to children under school age.

Councilmen okeyed a request from Bruce Boynton that the recreation department purchase a phonograph-radio combination for use in music, dancing, and rhythmic gymnastics classes.

It's All Off - - The First Winter Dance

It was all set to go, but the doctor says, "No!" Daly City's younger set will feel very glum when they learn that their first winter dance, scheduled for Friday evening at the General Pershing school, has been called off because of the flu epidemic.

Bruce H. Boynton, local WPA supervisor, telephoned the sad news to The Record office the last moment before press-time yesterday afternoon. It may be possible to hold the dance next Friday, he said.

Ice Skating Easy To Learn

Ice skating is easy to learn and it's grand fun, according to Hans Johnsen, international silver medalist in this field of sport and one of the world's best known instructors in skating.

Head instructor at Winterland, the big ice rink at Post and Steiner streets, Johnsen has some sound advice for ice skating beginners.

"Take a 'straight' skating lesson on the first visit to an ice rink. This will help the novice to absorb the fundamentals of skating, which are the basis of all ice performance including fancy figure work. This first lesson will show balance and how to move the feet.

"To those skating for the first few times, we suggest the use of rent skates. It is important to get a pair of skates and boots which fit snugly and it is recommended that a thin wool sock be worn. This will add to the skater's comfort. By using rent skates, anyone may find out for themselves, without investment, just how much fun skating is."

Anyone planning to purchase ice skates should consult an expert, Johnsen declares. Proper fit and style are required and these factors vary widely, he said.

Concluding his advice, Johnsen says anyone who can walk can learn to skate. Remember to stand erect, he advises, with knees slightly bent. The principle of balance and poise is the same in skating, dancing and walking.

THIS GOOD DEED "SMELLS"

Boy Scouts of Troop 141 turned their hand to a good deed which "smelled to high heaven" on their Thanksgiving vacation hike. The boys found a sea lion, which had been shot, on the beach at Cypress Grove, near Sharp Park. As the picture shows, burying it was a very good deed for everyone who might happen to be within sniffing distance.

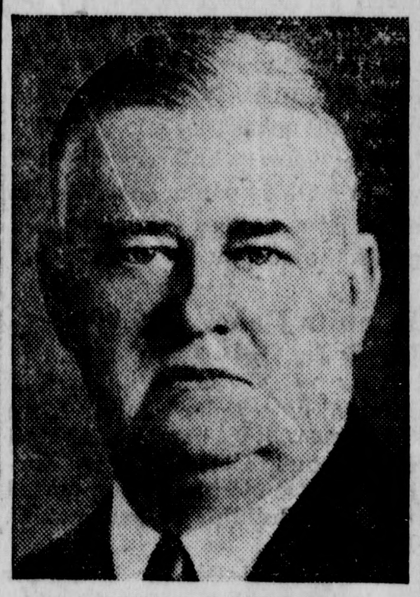
Another good deed accomplished was the rescue of an injured seagull. After amputating the bird's broken wing, the boys brought the bird home to feed and care for.

Baseball



Many minor professional baseball teams will be "built" at Atlanta, Georgia, when the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues convenes today to Friday. The convention will mark William G. Bramham's (above) eighth year as president-treasurer of the association.

Sea Scouts Hear Famous Adventurer

Six Sea Scouts of Ship No. 1, Troop No. 148, recently enjoyed a thrilling adventure film in San Francisco's Community Playhouse, shown by the famous author of "Seven Seas on a Shoestring," Captain Dwight Long.

In his small boat, the "Idle Hour," the young adventurer spent six years doing what every Sea Scout longs to do—sailing the tropic seas, exploring every nook and corner of the earth's far ports and distant islands.

His color film and lecture over, the famous adventurer talked for several moments afterwards with the six Daly City Scouts and their leader, Mel Hansen. His picture will hang in their meeting place in the future, the Scouts report.

Boys attending the lecture included Clarence Parr, Clifford Harr, Stanley Nelson, Roland Verganni, Raymond Blumenthal and Lawrence Christensen.

Issue School Paper At Woodrow Wilson

Sales of The Herald, Woodrow Wilson elementary school newspaper, reached an all-time high this term. Now in the hands of subscribers, the edition represented weeks of hard work on the part of the class editors and their assistants. Plans for the paper to be issued next term are already under way.

Now that The Herald is off the press, pupils have turned their attention to decorating class rooms in the Yuletide manner. Every room in the building has taken on a Christmas aspect, with festive trees, drawings and pictures ready to welcome Santa Claus.

Quite a few of the boys around town have long faces this week, having generously spotted California seven points against Stanford. Live and learn!

By the way, have you noticed those cute little Christmas tree cards going up in the windows of Daly City Merchants?

SNAPSHOTS: Al Garibaldi of the Daly City Cab, hurriedly dodging traffic while trotting across San Jose avenue—Leo Kellejian of American Shoe company preparing for his big sale—Ed Cavagnaro chucking the first ball in the Eagles' Bowling league—Bert Meritt taking pictures of Dale Hovey, taking pictures of the recent bonfire rally.

And that's about all for this week, except to remind you there are only 17 more shopping days 'til Christmas. So get busy!

San Mateo county's rabies quarantine will be continued for 90 days more, it was announced this week by Dr. C. C. Gans, county director of health and welfare.

In a bulletin issued establishing the quarantine, the health department head stated that the extension was made because of "an outbreak of rabies" in the county.

Fred Collins, local health officer, pointed out that the disease is still prevalent and that the utmost care should be used to keep all dogs in strict confinement or on a leash during the quarantine period.

Whist To Benefit Colma Church

Parishioners of Holy Angels church in Colma will give a benefit whist party Tuesday, December 17, at 8:30 p. m. in the parish hall.

THIS WEEK --- At Jefferson Union High School

Music

Roy DeVincenzi, Jefferson senior, again came before the footlights as the Chorus presented him last week with a music emblem in appreciation of his work. DeVincenzi designed the emblem for the music sweater now being worn by the music classes.

Main order of business on the chorus and orchestra program is the Christmas play, coming soon. As was the case last year, the chorus will sing throughout the play. More details will be given as the work on the play progresses.

Albert Marcucci, an old member of the Indians of Rhythm, was welcomed by his alma-mater in assembly, last Wednesday. Marcucci was the featured soloist at the assembly.

The Cow Boy band and the Indians of Rhythm combined their efforts to present a swell assembly for the benefit of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis drive.

Jefferson response to this vital cause was almost one hundred per cent. An average of five cents per person, including teachers, was found when counting the donations.

Each member of the student body was presented with a little bangle pin and pamphlet telling of the "Cause, Prevention and Control of Tuberculosis."

Classes

COMMERCIAL

Miss Edna Smith, commercial instructor, took the members of her commercial classes on another educational tour. The group were quite impressed with their trip through the Golden State Dairy plant, Thursday afternoon.

HI-SENIORS

For all Hi seniors who plan entering San Francisco State college upon graduation, a notice was received through the office that entrance examinations will be given, December 14. The aptitude test will be held in the morning and the English test in the afternoon.

Campus Fashions

Safety pins, macaroni, corn and beans all have their place in the fashion world. Yes Sir! Some of the cutest costume jewelry can be designed in your own kitchen. The cost is a bottle of nail polish, some string and a needle.

If you don't think that it will look like anything, just settle yourself for lesson number one.

First of all the safety pin . . .

Safety pins make some of the cutest bracelets that you ever saw, and, believe it or not, you can't buy this unique bracelet anywhere in town. So, if you want to be the first in your class to use this clever idea, trot over to the store and invest in a package of safety pins. Gather them up in a bunch, and string them together with a rubber band at each end of the pins, and wear them as your bracelet.

Macaroni takes the spotlight next.

Have you ever thought of raiding mother's pantry and swiping soem of her shell macaroni? Take the shell macaroni, punch a hole in it with a hot needle, and then string them into bracelets and necklaces. To finish the foibles, paint them with your brightest nail polish. The result is simply startling.

Another cute necklace is stringing beans and corn into chic necklaces. You need an ice pick and patience for this job.

These cute bits of jewelry make the smartest Christmas presents, and they are so inexpensive that any girl can manage to make all four of these attractive gifts on her allowance.

Give them to your friend for Christmas. She will be tickled pink. They add so much to your sweaters and sport dresses.

This weeks' fashion bouquet goes to a little Miss who also believes that jewelry is essential for a complete campus outfit. Our Campus Miss was dressed in an emerald green sweater, brown skirt and green socks. To accentuate her outfit, she had on several strands of gold beads, and a darling Indian ring, that just about matched her sweater.

Our fashionable lady came from Woodrow Wilson, is a low senior and upon her graduation hopes to become a secretary.

One very striking element about her was her soft voice and pleasing personality. Yep! She's our choice of the week. So we extend a fashion bouquet with orchids to Miss Lorraine Vernazza.

Student Government

A short business meeting was called to order yesterday by President Bill Rigler. Under old business the plans for the semi-annual election campaign were discussed. Tentative dates for this affair are as follows: petitions will be accepted from December 16 to 20 and from January 6 to 10; campaign speeches will be held January 13, election, January 14 and inauguration, January 15. Rigler appealed to the executive board to make it their duty to see that at least two or three people run for each office.

Herb Poddig, member of the sergeant-at-arms committee, said that the committee is taking under consideration the suggestion made at the last executive meeting, by Peggy Schy, junior president. Peggy suggested a method of taking care of the habitual offenders in the assembly hall. She suggested that a study hall be maintained and that the regular offenders be sent to the study hall and not allowed to attend the assembly for the rest of the semester. This suggestion was accepted by the executive board one-hundred per cent.

Howard Vierra, chairman of the plaque committee, made a report and said that the plaque would be ready to deliver to South San Francisco sometime next week.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:08 a. m.

Ghetto in Amsterdam

Probably no Ghetto in Europe has more American visitors than the one in Amsterdam. They come to No. 41 Waterloo Plein to see where Spinoza was born, and to the house at No. 4 Jodenbree street where Rembrandt lived for 16 years.

MUSIC

New Director Discusses Music And Daly City

In a series of two articles, written exclusively for The Daly City Record, Miss Clara Dayton, brilliant young music director, tells in her own way how she regards Daly City and music. Now available through the facilities of the local WPA Recreation department, Miss Dayton hopes to accomplish much during the next few weeks in organizing all kinds of community music here in Daly City.

"The newcomer is greatly impressed with the surroundings of a community, but I am inclined to believe that he comes to appreciate it best only through knowledge and observation of its inhabitants' customs.

"Naturally, a beautifully planned community, with its lovely homes, buildings, parks and playgrounds, is forever a joy to the citizens who have made such attractions possible; and especially when the setting of sea, hills, and foliage is so magnificent as we know them here, one easily comes to feel that life is quite complete.

"Each of us, however, has one-time felt a secret regret; one wishes that he had only undertaken a particular task earlier in life—another that he might have pursued a special study at one time or another which would prove highly beneficial to him today.

"I have known and talked with many individuals who wish they had been afforded the opportunity to study music as children, and I shall repeat to you now, what I have said to them and have found to be true: 'Childhood is not the only time for pleasure—and music, like all education, is a continuous process of growth which belongs to youth and adult alike.'

"Everyone has a need for music; it furnishes inspiration, relaxation, and good fellowship to those who indulge in its spirit. Beauty in Nature is a God-given thing; music is man's own expression and appreciation of the beauty he has found in Nature.

"We all need inspiration to go on, which can assuredly be had through some kind of musical participation—either from singing, playing or merely understanding it. Music refreshes and revitalizes the spirit with new and exciting experiences; the words or interesting rhythm of a folksong carry us into vitally different atmospheres from those to which we are daily accustomed.

"We are much too tense these days with the strain of terrifying, heart-rending episodes in the affairs of the world. We need, more than ever, to think about those things for which America stands, and to learn through her people, and the music of her people what she has given the world, and can hope to accomplish in the future."

Mr. And Mrs. Fahey Jr. Ill With Flu Attack

Victims of the light flu epidemic sweeping the county, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Fahey jr. have both been confined to their beds this week with an attack of the flu.

So -- Shop Early

There was a young lady "Miss Slow"
Who just had no get-up-and-go;
To all signs she said, "Pooh!
As I please, so I do."
Her sad fate, you will presently know.

Christmas Eve she awoke with a start;
To the stores she flew like a dart.
She ignored a red light—
What a horrible sight!
Now she shops in a heavenly mart.

Oh heed well this tale of much woe;
Don't start when the red light says "NO."
If you Christmas shop early,
Sales folk won't be surly,
And you'll live to a hundred or so.

Oil Field Production

OPENS AT DALY CITY THEATRE TOMORROW

Such wonderful love letters you used to write me! Many a wife has sighed that to hubby, even as Joan Blondell is to Dick Powell, here in "I Want a Divorce," Paramount's comedy drama, slated for three days at the Daly City theatre, beginning tomorrow. What you can't see here is the result when they quarrel over the part telling where he was on a certain night—with that blonde, of course! (That her end of it, fellers!)

Booked on the new bill also is the latest March of Time "Mexico." Saturday Matinee a new serial will start—Junior "G Men."

Companion feature will be "The Great Profile," starring John Barrymore and Mary Beth Hughes.

Gasoline Taxes

American motorists paid more than $7,000,000,000 in gasoline taxes in 19 years after the first tax of this kind was levied. This is almost as much as the federal government requires for one year's running expenses.

Richard Silvanes Honored At Surprise Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Andie Silvanes, 1056 Huron street, gave a surprise birthday party last Wednesday evening for their son, Richard, in honor of his twenty-fifth birthday.

Many friends attended to wish the Jefferson Union high school graduate health and good luck. He was surprised witha telephone serenade of "Happy Birthday" and with several attractive gifts, as well as a telegram from two cousins and the congratulations of fellow workers. At midnight, a large birthday cake and "all the trimmings" completed the evening.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Rodriguez, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bagala, Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Torres, Mr. and Mrs. James Santoes, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hermisillo, Miss Mercedes Torres, Frank Torres and Angelo Torres.

Mothers Club Sets Date For Bazaar

Mothers club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help school will hold a special meeting at 3:30 p. m. Friday at the school to discuss plans for the bazaar, which will be held December 15.

Featuring hand-made gifts, novelty items and fine linens, the bazaar will open at 8 a. m. one week from Sunday at Perpetual Help school. Luncheon will be served; and there will be various attractive booths. Mrs. Sophie Klingler, president, cordially invites the public to attend.

Here's A Play "About Tomorrow"

If records are criterion, then Frank Craven, in the new comedy "About Tomorrow" which opened at the Curran theatre, Monday, will add to his unbroken list of stage successes, for this new play by George Seaton is the type Craven favors. He would not be the star of the piece, nor would he direct it, otherwise. He is doing both.

Since Frank Craven first starred in "Too Many Cooks," the records show not a blemish. The last one before "About Tomorrow" was "Our Town."

In this one, lovely Sally Eilers, motion picture and stage star, plays the feminine love interest, with Tom Rutherford (Remember him with Gable and Loy in "Test Pilot?") as her heart's desire:

Frank Craven's list of hits include "The First Year," "Nineteenth Hole," "That's Gratitude," "Riddle Me This," "Seven Chances," "Under Fire," and many other Broadway successes; most of them he authored, starred and directed.

He seems to have that uncanny knack of "sensing" a hit, and as for making people laugh, he is past master of the art. His favorite plays are the homey, close to real people, down to the earth sort—but always seeing the comedy of even their tribulations—the "Our Town" type was his previous favorite. Now he favors the George Seaton comedy "About Tomorrow," characterized as a play of today with its exciting comedy, yet possessing infinite charm.

The steady increase of divorce in Canada is attracting the attention of sociologists and statisticians of the Dominion. The figures steadily mount. In 1918, there were only 114 divorces in all the country. In 1928, the figure had risen to 783 and in 1938, to 1,883.

Pershing P. T. A. Set Date For Sale

Sewing Chairman Mrs. Caroline Conroy will have charge of the attractive gift items and other merchandise. Mrs. Ann Eason will supervise the food sale. There will also be an extensive rummage sale, according to Mrs. Virginia Davidson, president.

At the unit's general meeting yesterday afternoon, members were entertained by Miss Cope's kindergarten class. Attending the executive board meeting of the seventeenth district, Monday, in Burlingame, was Mrs. Davidson.

The school cafeteria, which recently opened at the General Pershing school under the auspices of the PTA unit, has already served more than 300 children with hot lunches. More workers are still needed and Mrs. Davidson today issued a plea to her unit for additional assistance.

Seasonable Salads

By Frances Lee Barton

A WOMAN is in a salad rut when she finds herself serving hearts of lettuce with French dressing, day after day. Or perhaps it is lettuce and tomato, lettuce and cucumber, or any one of a score of combinations. Hunt for new salads, especially seasonable ones. Right now, I offer a cranberry combination that you will find delightful:

Cream Cheese and Cranberry Salad

1 package orange-flavored gelatin; 1 pint hot water; ⅓ cup sugar; ⅛ teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon vinegar; 2 cups cranberries, ground; 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add sugar, salt, and vinegar. Chill. When partially thickened, add cranberries. Mash cheese until creamy. Add gelatin-cranberry mixture gradually to cheese and beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Turn into ring mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce and garnish with chicory or escarole. Serve with French dressing or mayonnaise. Serves 6.

Good Wading

Palanga, a Lithuanian coast resort 700 years old which has a tourist population twice the number of its own inhabitants, has one of the safest sandy beaches of the Baltic. You can wade out 90 feet on the sandy ocean floor before the sea reaches the knees. It is a paradise for children's play

Mushroom Stuffing for Roast Turkey

Dorothy Greig

MENTION the subject of turkey stuffing in any group of women and you run right head on into tradition.

"In my family we always use oyster stuffing," says one. "We wouldn't think a turkey was right without my grandmother's sweet raisin dressing," laughs another. "We like good old fashioned bread crumbs and thyme," declares a third.

So last year when I did something a little different from our usual dressing, I felt like a positive rebel. The new dressing, however, was so delicious in itself and lent such delicate flavor to the turkey that a brand new tradition is probably budding in our family. The turkey for the Big Day will be stuffed that way again this year! It is condensed cream of mushroom soup that adds so much to the flavor of this dressing.

12 cups soft bread crumbs
1 tablespoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
4 tablespoons chopped parsley
½ cup melted butter
2 teaspoons onion juice
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup

Cut the crusts from day old bread. Then make soft crumbs by pulling bread apart. Add seasonings, chopped parsley, melted butter and onion juice and mix lightly. Then add the soup which has been stirred well and mix all together. Stuff into the turkey. (Allow one cup bread crumbs for each pound of turkey.)

'Boom Antwerp'

Americans in Antwerp, Belgium, are sometimes puzzled at the sight of large yellow busses bearing the legend "Boom Antwerp." These are not posters for a booster campaign, but indications that the busses will take you to the town of Boom, 12 miles away.

A SHORT STORY - -

Old John had retired. Yes, he had a rest coming to him after a good life of hard work. But old John wasn't getting much rest. Something seemed to bother him. Well, one day he happened to see in the paper where the Daly City Mattress company could make a comfortable innerspring mattress out of an old one. Old John phoned to have his mattress picked up, and now he gets such a fine sleep every night, he's thinking of going back to work again.

Take The Time To Read This Rhyme - -

It is not often that a busy publicity chairman of a PTA unit finds time to write poetry; but Mrs. Orvilla D. Pauw, 859 Hanover street, chose that unusal method this week to announce the bazaar, luncheon, food and rummage sale which Crocker unit will hold Friday at Theatre hall.

Come one, come all to Theatre hall,
Where Crocker PTA will hold a bazaar;
You are welcome to come and make us a call
At ten when we open the door.
The date has been set for Friday, the Sixth—
Be sure you remember the day.
Come early ,so you may be able to pick
From the gifts which will be on display.

Lunch will be served from eleven 'til two,
And food on the side will be sold;
Lovely things you can buy, if you want something new
And rummage if you want something old.
A display of the articles offered for sale
Can be seen in Harrison's store
On Wednesday, if you happen to pass that way
But probably not before.

Go choose the things you wish to buy
And on Friday, be awfully sure
No one gets there before you arrive,
To claim the things meant for you.
Come, everyone, who can walk or crawl,
Come to the bazaar at Theatre hall,
Crocker PTA and the ladies all
Are giving, December, the Sixth.

Judge Advises Against "Flying"

"You'll have to learn the difference between flying in the air and flying on the ground," Judge Wade H. Clay told a would-be aviator as he fined him $10 for speeding, Friday.

Walton Warner, 635 Pine street, was charged with driving 75 miles an hour by Police Officer Ricco Benedetti, who caught him after a spectacular two-and-one-half mile chase down Junipero Serra boulevard. Warner told the judge he was studying to be an aviator.

Mrs. Mary Wynn, 349 San Leandro way, also had driving troubles last week, crashing through a pile of boxes and breaking down the garage doors at Lake Merced Nursery. She told police officers she did not realize she had driven into a blind street. Judge Clay fined her $25 on a reckless driving charge.

Other fines levied at Friday's court were as follows: Jefferson Nottingham, 146 Sears street, and Norman E. Graham, 1336 Forty-fifth avenue, $5 each for dumping.

William Elmer Nagel, 1700 Seventeenth avenue, $50 bail forfeited for drunken driving.

Joseph W. Belisle, 240 Tingley street, $10, speeding; James Eplay, 462 Eighteenth avenue, $5, speeding.

Disregarding signals, $1 each: Victor J. Martin, 66½ Walter street, and Norman Phillips, 1338 Forty-first avenue, $1.

Ernest Louis Cappai, 199 Coleridge street, was fined $2.50 for having no brakes on his car.
